Welcome One and All to the 130th National Convention of the Commercial Law League of America!

The next 3 days are going to be amazing! There is sure to be something for everyone! There is a full slate of world class education, covering a wide array of topics from legislative updates to bankruptcy, to ethics, to cybersecurity and more. There are also fun and interesting opportunities to network. Test your trivia knowledge in our gameshow or show off your pipes at karaoke. Soak in the national pastime at Wrigley Field for a Cubs game. Or play in the ever-popular Goosechase. And please do not forget about the Women’s Empowerment and Networking Event on Thursday, to benefit Dress for Success Worldwide.

If you are a new member or first-time attendee, welcome! We are so glad you are here with us. If this is not your first time with us, then reach out to a new member or first timer and show them why our League is the premier place in the world for fellowship, networking, and business development in the commercial law industry!

Also, if you see any of the many volunteers who help keep our wonderful League moving forward, give them a word of thanks. And if you are not one of those volunteers, I would encourage you to become one. There are a great many opportunities to get involved with the League and now is the perfect time to dip your toe in. It is the best way to meet people and get the most value from your membership. If you are interested just reach out to me, any of the members of the Board of Governors, any committee member, or anyone from the League’s management team.

If there is anything I can do to help you make your Chicago 2024 experience the best it can be, please do not hesitate to ask. I hope everyone has a great time. As the Blues Brothers said on their way to Chicago, “... we’ve got a full tank of gas, half a pack of cigarettes; it’s dark and we’re wearing sunglasses. Hit it!”

WELCOME TO CHICAGO

Dear Colleagues,

It is my pleasure, as Chair of the Midwest Region, to welcome you to the 130th National Convention of the Commercial Law League of America. We are thrilled to have you join us for this exciting event in the great city of Chicago. This year, we celebrate not only the rich history of the League, but also the bright future ahead.

This convention stands as a testament to the enduring dedication of our professional community and industry. Over the years, we have grown together, overcome challenges, and achieved great things. This year, we aim to build on that legacy, offering educational programming filled with distinguished speakers and insightful discussions. Of course, there will be ample opportunities for networking, friendship, and collaboration.

This meeting is also a time to celebrate our achievements and to recognize those who have made significant contributions to the league and our industry. We look forward to honoring these individuals during our awards ceremony. The League's new slate of leaders will also be installed and will lead us into our 131st year.

Your presence and engagement are important to the continued success of these meetings and to the League. We encourage you to participate, share your expertise, and take advantage of the chance to connect with fellow attendees from around the country. For those of you new to the league or attending your first meeting, we are glad to have you here with us. I know you will find this group of professionals warm and welcoming.

Once again, welcome to the 130th annual meeting and welcome to Chicago!

130th Annual Commercial Law League of America National Convention

It is with immense pleasure and excitement that I extend a warm welcome to you to join us at the 130th Annual Convention of the Commercial Law League of America. We are delighted to have you back in Chicago at the Swissotel, where you will have the opportunity to immerse yourself in the city's rich architecture, diverse culinary scene, vibrant shopping districts, world-class museums, and stunning lakefront views.

We are thrilled to announce that, in response to popular demand and advancements in technology, this year's National Convention will be once again presented on a hybrid platform. This innovative approach allows us to welcome participants who may have faced logistical challenges in attending the convention otherwise, and we are pleased to be able to accommodate a wider audience. The Education Committee has curated an exceptional lineup of educational sessions spanning three days, complemented by new and exciting networking events organized by our Meetings Committee. A heartfelt thank you goes out to all the dedicated volunteers who have devoted their time and energy to ensuring that this event is truly unmissable. We also extend our gratitude to all the members who have supported the League throughout the year by actively participating in committees, sections, and regions.

I would strongly encourage you to network while at the convention especially if you are new to the League or a first-time attendee. Networking among peers is crucial for personal and professional growth. By connecting with others, you can exchange ideas, gain valuable insights, and build a support system. Networking allows you to learn from others' experiences, collaborate, and even discover new opportunities. Additionally, building strong relationships with peers can lead to mentorship opportunities, increased visibility in your field, and a sense of community. Overall, networking among peers is essential for staying informed, motivated, and connected in today's fast-paced world.

The Commercial Law League of America is experiencing steady growth in membership and remains financially stable under the guidance of the Board of Governors. Thanks to the generosity of our sponsors and the active engagement of Champion Program participants, we are able to offer top-tier programs and events at affordable rates.

As you embark on the upcoming days filled with valuable educational opportunities and networking possibilities, we encourage you to also take some time to enjoy yourself. Make the most of all the offerings available to you during this convention. Remember to strike a balance between hard work and relaxation, as we are confident that you are in for an exceptional experience. We are truly delighted to have you join us!
